

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR ZEV YAROSLAVSKY

October 12, 2010

The late UCLA basketball coach John Wooden has been recognized as a Los Angeles legend, both as an athletic coach and as an inspirational teacher whose Seven Point Creed has helped guide students and residents to better live up to the true Bruin legacy and assume the privileges and responsibilities of Los Angeles community leadership.

During his 27 years as the Bruin basketball coach, UCLA won an unprecedented 10 NCAA championships, including seven consecutive winning seasons. His record of competitive achievement remains to this day unmatched.

It is only fitting that the County of Los Angeles pay appropriate tribute to this remarkable individual in the centennial year of his birth.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles that October 14, 2010, the date Coach John Wooden would have celebrated his 100th birthday, is hereby proclaimed as John Wooden Day in the County of Los Angeles, commemorating Coach Wooden's remarkable life and outstanding achievements, and his lasting contributions to our community.
